FALLIERES ELECTED PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

President of Senate Won Over Opponents.

GREAT INTREST MANIFESTED

Fallieres Had the Support of the Advanced Socialist and Radical Groups Constituting Famous Party which Sustained Combes' Ministry.

Paris, Jan. 18.—The national assembly met at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the congress hall of the Royal Palace at Versailles for the selection of a president of the republic.

The assembly consisted nominally of 591 deputies and 300 senators, but owing to deaths, illness and the passage of some of the deputies to the senate, leaving their seats vacant, the number present was decreased to about 860., making 430 votes necessary to elect a new president.

The greatest interest was manifested in the proceedings, which, however, were very prolonged. The members of the assembly voted in alphabetical order. Those waiting their turn discussed excitedly the prospects of their favorites. Although several candidates were mentioned for the presidency in succession to M. Loubet, including M. Fallieres, president of the senate, M. Doumer, president of the chambers of deputies, M. Sarrion, former minister of justice, and M. Leon Bourgois, the former premier, the real contest was between M. Fallieres and Doumer.

M. Fallieres had the support of the advanced Socialist and Radical groups, constituting the famous party which sustained the Combes ministry. M. Doumer, however, was a formidable opponent, whose election to the presidency of the chamber of deputies last year, after breaking away from his former connection with the famous party previously referred to, gave the first blow to M. Combes. The [illegible] Liberal Republicans belonging to the Conservatives, who were for M. Doumer, seemed inclined to continue their allegiance.

There was no occasion of a surprise in the shape of a candidate appearing at the last moment, and upsetting all the plans made as was the case when the late Sadi Carnot was elected president on the second ballot, securing an unexpected majority over the then favorite, the late M. Ferry. A double ballot also occurred when the late Felix Faure defeated M. Brisson, the former premier.

M. Fallieres was elected on the first ballot. The vote was as follows:

M. Fallieres 449; M. Doumer 371.

M., was sent to guard until daylight, prevented further attempts on the lockup. After the mob had dispersed, the sheriff placed Long in a carriage and took him to the Dover jail.

ROOSEVELT GOWNS ARE READY

Miss Alice's Trousseau Is Being Made In Baltimore, Md.

New York, Jan. 18.—Quite a large number of the gowns for Miss Alice Roosevelt's wedding outfit are being made in Baltimore, Md., according to a dispatch to a morning paper from that city.

The wedding gown is to consist of a heavy white satin brocade being made in an American silk factory. The old lace belonging to the Lee family of New England, Miss Roosevelt's mother's family, will be used in trimming the gown.

Several gowns have been sent to Washington for the prospective bride's inspection. Among them is the traveling dress of pale gray broadcloth. For this dress an exquisite set of furs is being made of silver fox also a turban of the same fur.

There is also a white satin evening dress combined with chiffon and real lace, and of pale green over green silk.

HELD BY CORONER.

Son Is Placed in Jail to Await Coroner's Action on Murder.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—John McMurrow, son of Anita McMurrow, known as the Countess DeBettancourt, was today committed to prison to await the ocorner's inquest into the death of his mother.

Mrs. McMurrow died suddenly yesterday and the police say that a short time previous to her death she had quarreled with her son. Mrs. McMurrow's body is said to be bruised.

At the hearing today McMurrow declared that he was in no manner responsible for his mother's death, but the police and coroner are conducting an investigation because of the stories told by neighbors of numerous disagreements between mother and son over money matters.

Convicted of Murder.

Knoxville, Jan. 17.—Drew and William Upton, negroes, who on January 7 murdered Richard Johnson, an aged pensioner, at his mountain home in Monroe county, Tennessee, were today convicted of murder in the first degree. The jury was out only ten minutes. They will be sentenced tomorrow. The case of William Moser, white, charged with being an accomplice, was continued until next term of court at Madisonville, Tenn. The murder was presumably for the purpose of robbery.

Oldest Clerk Dead.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Hugh S. Tuohy, oldest clerk in the treasury department, died at his home here on Tuesday. Mr. Tuohy was professor on the classics in the Georgetown university, resigning after five years to teach at Frederick, Maryland. He also taught mathematics at the marine barracks and for several years conducted a private school at his home. He had been in the treasury 44 years.

Workmen Want Pay Advanced.

New York, Jan. 18.—The engineers and firemen on the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio systems, it has been reported, are dissatisfied with their pay. It is said they are preparing to ask for an increase. In spite of the belief that the firemen of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad are taking a vote on the question of a strike, the officials there still think a strike a remote possibility.

MARSHALL FIELD YIELDS TO DEATH

End Came Peacefully to Chicago Merchant Prince.

AFTER EIGHT DAYS OF ILLNESS

He Was Without Question the Greatest and Most Successful Merchant of His Generation, and Was One of the World's Richest Men.

New York, Jan. 18.—Marshall Field, the millionaire Chicago merchant, died at the Holland house at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, after an eight days' illness of pneumonia.

Death came peacefully while members of the family—who had been in almost constant attendance for several days—were gathered around the death bed.

They, as well as the dying merchant himself, were prepared for the end. For days they had been swayed between hope and fear. Those who were present when the merchant died were Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., Augustus N. Eddy, Catherine Eddy, Mrs. Henry Dibblee, Robert T. Lincoln and Mrs. Preston Gibson.

Mr. Field's illness developed about a week ago, while he and Mrs. Field were on their way from Chicago to this city. He was traveling on the Pennsylvania Limited, and he was taken ill early Tuesday morning, just before the train reached Pittsburg. There a physician boarded the train and came on to this city with Mr. Field.

Mr. Field's body was taken to Chicago by special train. No funeral services were held here.

Marshall Field was, without question, the greatest and most successful merchant of his generation, and he was one of the world's richest men, his wealth being estimated at anywhere from one hundred to two hundred million dollars. He was a native of Conway, Mass., where he was born in 1835. His father was a farmer, and Mr. Field obtained his education in the public schools of Conway. At the age of seventeen he became a clerk in a general country store in Pittsfield, where he remained for four years. He went to Chicago in 1856, and began his career there as a clerk in the wholesale dry goods establishment of Cooley, Wadsworth & Co.

During the four years that he remained with this house, he showed marked commercial ability, and in 1860 he was given a partnership. The late Levi Z. Leiter was also connected with the firm, and in 1865 the two young men withdrew, and in company with Potter Palmer they organized the firm Field, Palmer & Leiter, which continued until 1867, when Mr. Palmer withdrew, and the firm became Field, Leiter & Co. This continued until 1881, when Mr. Leiter retired and the firm became known as Marshall Field & Co., as it is today. This house forged to the front very rapidly and it is now the largest enterprise of its kind in the world. Its remarkable success is attributed almost entirely to Mr. Field and his methods. He made it a rule never to borrow money, and never to issue a note.

Mr. Field was twice married, his first wife having died several years ago. Mr. Field left two children, Ethel, now married and residing at Leamington, England, and Marshall Field, Jr., who accidentally shot himself at his home in Chicago Nov. 22, 1905, and died five days later.

Sept. 5, 1905, Mr. Field was married in London, England, to Mrs. Caton.

NEGRO HEL.DFOR FORGERY.

Deposited Check and Then Bought Many Articles.

Covington, Ga., Jan. 18.—N. J. Lackey, alias James H. Harper, a negro, was arrested and lodged in the county jail here Tuesday on the charge of forgery, which offense he is alleged to have committed in this city Monday afternoon.

Having a check in his possession for $[illegible], drawn on a bank at Conyers, with the name of L. J. Almand signed to it, and made payable to James H. Harper, whom he represented himself to be, Lackey purchased to James H. to be, Lackey purchased $270 worth of goods from one of the furniture stores here, presenting the check in payment of the bill. After receiving his change, which he deposited in one of the local banks, Lackey made a number of other purchases around town, giving checks on the account which he had just made at the bank.

While operating in the same manner with the merchants of Oxford, later in the day, he was arrested on suspicion. It was quickly ascertained that the check on the Conyers bank was a forgery. When arrested, Lackey attempted to conceal his bank book in one of his socks. A razor was found on his person, and the charge of carrying concealed weapons was also docketed against the wily Lackey.

AGITATORS ASKED TO LEAVE.

Cubans Are Told to Punish Americans Wherever Found.

Key West, Fla., Jan. 18.—Great excitement prevailed here Tuesday night when eight of the agitators who have been most active in inciting the cigar makers' strike were asked by the citizens to leave and left for Havana. Three of them came from Tampa by the steamer Olivette, and the others were members of the committee of the Cuban union.

The American Cigar Makers went to work Tuesday morning. The Cuban committee issued a circular denouncing them, calling them vile names and threatening them. The circular told the Cubans to punish Americans wherever they met them. This aroused the people, who cornered the strike committee and invited them to leave.

All is quiet now, but more trouble is feared.

Girl in Flames Said Lines.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 18.—During the parting scene in the third act of "Mozart," played here by Howard Kyle, the light clothing of Miss Josephine Victor, who essayed the part of La Mandini, became ignited from a candle on the stage. She was unaware of the danger until the leader of the orchestra directed her attention to the burning drapery. Reaching down she quickly extinguished the flames with her hands, which were burned badly, and continued her lines without break in the words or expression. The accident caused the scene to lose none of its interest, and her coolness in all probability saved the audience from the danger of a panic.

Students on Strike.

New York, Jan. 18.—There was a strike yesterday in the Rabbinical seminary. The seminary has 100 students between the ages of 17 and 24 years studying to become rabbis. Facts Is Brought Out that Alleged Instigator of Plot Did Not Invest the Amount Necessary to Buy Certificate From Which to Make Bogus Plate.

New York, Jan. 18.—The investigation into the Norfolk and Western stock swindle, it was said yesterday, had disclosed the fact the alleged instigator of the plot did not invest $8,600, the amount needed to purchase a 100-share certificate from which to make the bogus issues.

Information has been obtained by the authorities showing it was said that the man borrowed a 100-share certificate from a certain broker. The certificate was turned over to the engravers to be copied from, with certain variations, three boxes which Charles Augustus Seton had in the standard safe deposit company's vaults and transferred to a man named Donnelly were taken to Assistant District Attorney Garvin's office yesterday and examined. They disclosed all sorts of papers. A diploma to Seton—the name spelled Seaton—by the Ohio Wesleyan university in 1893, was found, also the diploma he received from the high school at Plymouth, O. There were memoranda of acounts with three big stock exchange houses.

MICANOPY MINUTES.

A Most Brilliant Crystal Wedding Celebration—Other Local Events.

Micanopy, Jan. 18.—A brilliant event in Micanopy society was the crystal wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyce Simonton on the evening of the 13th. The hospitable home was aglow with many lights and beautiful decorations. The parlor was tastefully graced with potted plants and roses. In the reception hall a touch from departed holidays was shown in the glowing decorations of red and green holly, mistletoe and other evergreens, transforming the room into a brilliant bower. Mrs. F. B. Hester, Mrs. J. Lynn Fenster and Mrs. A. E Smith were invited to assist the hostess in dispensing the hospitality of the evening. The happy couple, over whom fifteen years have passed so lightly, were the recipients of many good wishes and congratulations. In the rear hall the punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. Will Smith, and in the diningroom ice cream was served. The color scheme of green and white was prettily carried out in the decorations of the room as well as the refreshments. The ceiling decorations were in canopy effect in festoons of green and white. The table had a centerpiece of a mirror encircled with hyacinths and ferns. Green shaded lights and candles set in flowers made the scene fairy-like. The ices were green and white. Mrs. Simonton received her guests in a becoming gown of white with pearl trimmings. Mrs. A. E. Smith wore a cream dress—lace-trimmed. Mrs. F. B. Hester's dress was of black silk with touches of cream lace. For several days Mr. and Mrs. Simonton have been entertaining a house-party of young people who came to be present at the anniversary celebration. These were Misses Alice Brumby and Mollie Willie Dolive of Orlando; Miss Margaret Simmons of Maitland; Miss Bessie Anderson of Adairsville, Ga., and Mr. Hugh Simmons of Charleston, S. C. Many beautiful presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Simonton. Several large tables were covered with exquisite cut glass, coming from friends all over Florida, Georgia and other States. About sixty were present, friends from Micanopy, Tacoma, Williston and McIntosh, and enjoyed an evening of rare pleasure, and on departing expressed many wishes for the happy future of the popular couple.

FOOD OR STIMULANT.

Ask your doctor if when he orders a patient to drink lots of pure milk he advises the addition of a large quantity of whiskey. He'll tell you "no" very emphatically. Yet there are people who, when ordered to get Scott's Emulsion, will accept some wine, cordial or extract of cod liver oil and think it is the same thing or better. If you want and need cod liver oil in its best, purest and most easily digested form, get Scott's Emulsion. If you want whiskey, that's another matter, but don't look for the same results.

Mrs. B. F. Jordan Entertained Society People Thursday.

Mrs. B. F. Jordan, 401 North Oak avenue, gave a delightful "at home" Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock for the elderly ladies and in the evening for the young gentlemen and ladies. The latter entertainment was tendered in honor of Misses Hampton and Christine Richards.

In the afternoon Mrs. Jordan was assisted in the receiving line by Mrs. Phillips, Miss Christine Richards and the Misses Hampton.

The afternoon was passed in a most enjoyable manner and the occasion was pronounced one of the social successes of the season.

Mrs. L. R. Woods and Miss Broward of Fort George presided at the punch bowl, Mesdames Jordan and Scriven Dozier respectively at the coffee and tea urns, while Mesdames S. J. Thomas and W. B. Taylor served in a tempting manner the dainty edibles.

In the evening the young people took possession of the home and merriment was the order until a late hour. Cards was the order, and it is needless to add that, with all the talent at hand, the occasion proved exciting and interesting.

Delicious refreshments were served during the evening and altogether the function was one of the swellest events of the season.

Imperfect Digestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this. It gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Funeral of Mrs. Dampier.

The funeral of Mrs. Phillip Dampier, the sad death of whom occurred at her home in North Gainesville Wednesday morning, occurred Thursday morning at her home, Rev. Francis H. Craighill, of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, of which deceased was a member, officiating.

A number of friends of deceased assembled to pay their last sad respects, and the scene was a most impressive one.

Deceased leaves a little girl only four or five days of age, and on this account double sympathy goes out to the bereaved husband and family.

The interment was in Evergreen cemetery, and many followed the remains to the grave.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do You Fear Consumption?

When we take into consideration the fact that one out of every seven in the civilized world die of consumption it is no wonder that it is feared by the people of Gainesville who have weak lungs and chronic colds and coughs.

A famous London physician has for years urged his patients, when the slightest tendency to consumption appeared, to take the best cod liver preparation they could find, and physicians everywhere have recognized that the cod's liver contains curative values for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption and all wasting diseases unequalled in medicine, but, unfortunately, few could take and derive any benefit from old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions on account of the indigestible grease which they contain.

Our local druggist, W. M. Johnson, says: "We want every person in Gainesville to know the value of our new cod liver preparation, Vinol. It actually contains in a concentrated form all of the strengthening body-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without a drop of grease to upset the stomach and retard its work.

"Therefore, where old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions would do good, Vinol will do far more good. We guarantee Vinol will improve the appetite, strengthen digestion, make rich, red blood, create strength, cure chronic coughs and colds and strengthen weak lungs. If Vinol fails to give satisfaction, we return your money without question." W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

JUSTICE COLMAN'S COURT.

Two Defendants Arraigned, but Discharged for Lack of Evidence.

Justice Colman set his mill of justice to grinding Thursday, but the result did not add to the coffers of the county treasurer, hence the fine and forfeiture fund, for which the county commissioners and school board are now contending, is none the larger.

Benjamin Thompson and John Randolph, who figured the day before in the mayor's court in a case of a general mixup at a colored festival, were arraigned upon a charge of assault. But there was not sufficient evidence to convince the court that the defendants were engaged in the row directly, so they were discharged.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

PEPPER GOT THE COLT.

Strayed Animal Was Recovered Away Down in Levy County.

T. M. Pepper, a progressive farmer living [illegible] miles west of Gainesville and is the master of a productive home and happy home, enjoyed a visit Saturday, and reported the loss of a valuable colt, which had disappeared from his place a day or two previous.

Mr. Pepper inserted an advertisement in The Semi-Weekly Sun of Monday and Wednesday the animal was returned to him, having been taken up in Levy county, near Bronson. The colt was brought here by Mr. Faircloth, a liveryman, to whom it was delivered by the man picking it up. Mr. Faircloth, who is a reader of The Sun, recognized the animal by the description.

This is another evidence that The Sun is the proper medium when it comes to profitable advertising.

Another prominent citizen, in this connection, stated a few days ago that during the holidays a relative had sent him thirty-five head of fine turkeys for sale. He is ordinarily a busy man and did not have time to devote to securing turkey customers. He housed the fowls, however, and inserted a three-line advertisement in the local columns of The Sun, which brought him customers for all the birds except one, and he could have sold that if he had not wanted a New Year turkey dinner in his own household.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well-known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Convention To Be Held in Buslo.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering, for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable storehouse of blessing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by, falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GEN. ROBERT E. LEE.

The devotion of Gen. Robert E. Lee to the Southern States should never be forgotten by our people, and with each succeeding anniversary the day should be most fittingly kept. Like the gallant Jackson, he was a devoted Christian and a loyal son of the South, and in her hour of need he refused the emoluments he might have received at the hands of the National Government, preferring to be with his home people, preferring to sacrifice his all in a cause for his own dear southland, than forsake home for glory's crown.

His birthday anniversary—January 19th—is a reminder of one who never did the most trifling thing in all his career to cause the blush of shame to come to the cheek of any loyal Southern or Christian man or woman.

Marshall Field, the merchant prince of Chicago, who died in New York on Tuesday, had the distinction of making every dollar of his millions honestly. He was born in Massachusetts in 1835, and went to Chicago when a young man, where he advanced with that progressive city. He had been offered the vice-presidency on the Democratic ticket several times, but would never accept the nomination.

The building of a Governor's mansion will cost the State upwards of $25,000. Here is a chance for some of the howlers about the cost of the University to get in their work. There are many States that have twice the population of Florida that have no governor's house, and of the entire list over thirty governors draw no larger salary than the Governor of this State.

While Norway has not got a Republican form of government, their ways are decidedly Democratic, and in speaking of their ruler they call him "Mr. King," the same as we say "Mr. President." They were probably afraid to offend their neighbors by establishing a Republic.

If the weather had been made to order for the winter visitors it could not have been more beautiful than we have had for most of the time this winter. There has been some rain, but the good has more than made up for the few bad days we have had.

France has a new President, M. Falleries, and it seems that at the election which was held on Wednesday that the Frenchmen have made up their minds that harmony is a better thing than internal dissensions.

Kentucky has amended her law in regard to hanging so that women and minors are exempt from capital punishment. Of course mobs may deviate from the law.

Russian securities were reported weak in Paris a few days ago. So far as "securities" go, it looks as though they were decidedly insecure even in Russia.

The gasoline motor has only got fairly down to business, when the man with alcohol comes along and says he has a better and cheaper fuel.

Boston handled 227,339 boxes of Florida oranges during the year 1905.

CALIFORNIA FREEZE.

The weather is no respecter of sections or States, and when the cold wave gets headed for California or any other favored section, it makes as good connections as any of the most reliable trunk lines. The recent cold snap in California was a serious one, and when we realize the fact that the mercury dropped to 22 degrees above, it is quite evident that there was a cool breath about.

From The Fruit Trade Journal of New York, since the cold wave, we take the following:

"Los Angeles, Jan. 6, 1906

"Last Sunday and Monday nights, as well as a spell of two days about a week previous, California had cold weather—22 degrees above zero. At first very few persons would admit that any damage was done whatever, but it will have to be admitted that in some of the exposed sections frosted fruit will show up as soon as California has had a period of a week's warm weather again. Most of the Riverside fruit is in good condition, though as usual the very low cold sections have been touched up. The same applies to Arlington, Casa Blanca and Corona, as well as Pomona, Santa Anna, Covina, Azusa, etc. Redlands seems to have gotten off with less damage in the lower districts than any section of importance.

"There is a good deal of speculation going on as to what the effect will be on the future. Never before have growers seemed so unconcerned about the frost. Usually there has been a tendency to rush off shipments before there is any chance of the fruit showing dry, but it seems to be the opinion of a great number that on account of the very short crop which will be the inevitable result of the light crop that was set to start with, and the still shorter crop which will be the result from the frost as well as the damage done by the winds, it is a shortsighted policy to do much shipping under present market conditions. When the fruit does begin to show dry there may be some tendency to hurry shipments, but there is no reason to anticipate any serious overcrowding of the markets.

"The cold weather probably will necessitate marketing the crop a little faster than otherwise, though this may be counter-balanced by the fact that nearly every grower who can hold his crop seems to be determined to do so, in anticipation of very high prices from the first of March on, with a possibility of them coming sooner. There is every reason why prices should be high late in the season, unless some special condition arises that will knock out the present arguments for high prices. With the possibility of these high prices later it would seem that there should be less fluctuation and depression in the market this year than usual."

FOR PROGRESS.

It is decidedly refreshing to note that the newspapers of the State are advocating the laying aside of strict party lines and putting forward men who will work for the best interests of county and State. The conditions demand just such action, as every man should look to the progress of business for the good of the people, rather than for the good of cliques or clans.

In maintaining the principles of the Democratic party this idea will be carried out, as it has always stood for a tax sufficient to carry on the government economically administered, and if we present the same principles in State affairs as we do in National matters, there will be no retard movement in the progress of fair Florida.

The Twice-a-Week Sun is steadily gaining new subscribers, which makes it more desirable as an advertising medium.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Lakeland strawberry growers are discouraged because of the continued rainy weather. Many of the berries are rotting and much of the bloom is spoiled. Complaints are also made because of the exorbitant express charges on fruit and the statement is made that high express charges will drive many growers out of business.

"The marsh pony is noted for his strength and powers of endurance," says The St. Augustine Meteor, "but he is destined to have a formidable rival in the marsh mule. W. J. Sanchez, the largest raiser of marsh ponies in this section, if not in the State, has turned his attention to the raising of marsh mules, and he is elated over the result. The mule colts, says Mr. Sanchez, are at least one third larger than the pony colts of the same age. These animals are reared upon the marsh like native cattle in the woods. This is only another illustration of the many sources of revenue open to Floridians."

BABY COVERED WITH SORES

Would Scratch and Tear the Flesh Unless Hands Were Tied—Wasted to a Skeleton—Awful Suffering for Over a Year—Grew Worse Under Doctors—Skin Now Clear.

WOULD HAVE DIED BUT FOR CUTICURA.

"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. I had a physician treat him, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come on his arms, then on other parts of his body, and then one came on his chest, worse than the others. Then I called another physician. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he grew so bad I had to tie his hands in cloths at night to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing the flesh.

"He got to be a mere skeleton, and was hardly able to walk. My Aunt advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. So great was her faith in it that she gave me a small piece of Soap to try and a little of the Ointment. I took it home without any faith, but to please her I tried it, and it seemed to dry up the sores a little.

"I sent to the drug store and got a cake of the Soap and a box of the Ointment and followed the directions, and at the end of about two months the sores were all well. He has never had any sores of any kind since.

"He is now strong and healthy, and I can sincerely say that only for your most wonderful remedies my precious child would have died from those terrible sores. SAYS MANIFESTO WAS TRICK.

Mormon Theological Professor Renounces the Faith.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 18.—William Wolfe, professor of theology in Brigham Young college, a Mormon institution at Logan, Utah, has caused a stir in Mormon circles, acording to a Logan dispatch which the Tribune prints today, by renouncing his belief in the Mormon faith, refusing to pay tithes and severing his relations with the college.

According to Professor Wolfe, as the Tribune quotes him in an interview, his change of faith was due to a trip to Mexico which satisfied him, he said, that the Mormon church had receded from the Woodruff manifesto and reinstated polygamous marriages. He found many young women who had recently entered into the plural marriage relation with leading elders of the Mormon church.

Professor Wolfe is quoted as saying:

"The Mormon settlements in Mexico are closely in touch with those of Arizona and in each case polygamy is practiced as freely today as it ever has been."

Professor Wolfe is quoted as saying that he sought an explanation of these conditions of Apostle John Henry Smith, asking how these polygamous marriages could be reconciled with the Woodruff manifesto, and he is reported as quoting Apostle Smith as follows:

"Why, Brother Wolfe, do you not understand that the manifesto was only a trick devised to beat the devil at his own game?"

Professor Wolfe is the son of a Presbyterian clergyman. After engaging in the newspaper business he came to Utah ten years ago and became a convert to Mormonism.

RESORTS TO THE LAW.

Woman Alleges Manager Gunn Detains Her Son.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Rosa Lever has filed petition for writ of habeas corpus in the city court here in an effort to secure possession of her little son, who, she claims, is now being illegally detained by Manager J. R. Gunn, of the Georgia Industrial home.

Several months ago she allowed Manager Gunn to assume charge of the boy and he was immediately put under the care of the home. She claims that she was to see the child when she desired and also that she was to be allowed to take him back home as soon as she secured employment which would support her and the child.

This she says has been denied her and the petition was the result. Manager Gunn was ordered to produce the boy in court and the matter will be settled before Judge Hodges.

Manager Gunn took the child from East Macon several months ago and since that time he has been under instruction in the home school.

It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. The Secret of Success.

"Get something the people need. Then let the people know you've got it." That is the plain-talk prescription for business success given by Mr. H. L. Kramer, the famous creator and advertiser of Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, which in a few years have developed a sale of a million boxes a month. Every reader of this newspaper knows that the manufacturers of Cascarets have persistently used newspaper advertising to "let the people know" and the results have shown that Maj. Kramer "got something the people needed." It is a great object lesson in the school of business.

RUINS OF ST. PAUL'S.

Origin of Macaulay's Phrase in an Eighteenth Century Poem.

It has long been understood that the real inventor of Macaulay's famous New Zealander was Horace Walpole, who, in a letter to Mason, written in 1774, said: "At last some curious traveler from Lima will visit England and give a description of the ruins of St. Paul's, like the editions of Balbec and Palmyra." But Mr. Bertram Dobell writes to the London Academy giving the idea an earlier date. He finds it embodied in this old title page:

Poems, by a young Nobleman, of Distinguished Abilities, lately deceased; particularly, The State of England, and the once flourishing City of London. In a letter from an American Traveler, Dated from the Ruinous Portico of St. Paul's, in the year 2139, to a Friend settled in Boston, the Metropolis of the Western Empire. Also Sundry Fugitive Pieces, principally wrote whilst upon his Travels on the Continent. [Motto from Juvenal.] London, 1780.

Mr. Dobell explains that, though the book is dated 1780, the poem in it on London is dated March 21, 1771. He attributes it to the profligate second Lord Lyttelton. Here is one of his extracts from the composition:

And now thro' broken paths and rugged ways,
Uncultivated regions, we advanc'd
Towards fam'd Augusta's towers, on the Thames
(Whose clear broad stream glides smoothly thro' the vale)
Embank'd, and stretching o'er the level plain,
For many a mile her gilded spires were seen,
While Britain yet was free—alas! how chang'd,
How fallen from that envy'd height; what time
She rul'd the subject nations, and beheld
The Spaniard crouch beneath her spear, and all
The Gallic lilies crimson'd o'er with blood.
Extinguish'd are their glories, and her sun
That once enlighten'd Europe with his beams,
Sunk in the West is set, and ne'er again
Shall o'er Britannia spread his orient rays!
These were my thoughts whilst thro' a falling heap
Of shapeless ruins far and wide diffus'd,
Paul's great Cathedral, from her sound base,
High tow'ring to the sky, by heav'ns command
Amidst the universal waste preserv'd
Struck my astonished view.
On this fair object my fix'd eye was kept
In pleasing meditation, whilst my guide,
A poor emaciate Briton, led me on
Through streets, and squares, and failing palaces,
(Where here and there a habitat was seen)
To where stood once amongst the peopled town
Th' Exchange of London.

A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

Chinese Children.

The education of their children is a matter of no small interest to the affectionate Chinese mothers. They watch the little one from the day he is born, to note superstitious signs. Let him cry lustily, and he will live long, say the old grannies. If he teeths or walks too soon he will grow up unlovable in disposition. At first the little Chinese are not very attractive objects, presenting rather a scaly appearance, due to the custom of not washing them lest they catch cold. A month after his birth the boy's head is shaved. A great feast is prepared and celebrated, the child now receiving his "milk name." When he enters school his name is changed, as it is once more when he receives his degree.—Pilgrim.

Good Listeners.

In conversing with one's friends nothing is so chilling as an apparent lack of attention and sympathy. It might be added that nothing is more vulgar were not the listener's indifference common to the majority of our most cultured people. If when one is addressed she will remember to incline the body slightly forward an attitude of rapt attention will soon be unconsciously assumed and, whether really worthy of it or not, new recruits gained for the always popular, as rare, class known as "good listeners."

DEATH OF S. W. LEGRANDE.

Passed Away Last Night After a Brief Illness.

S. W. LeGrande died at his home on East Main street, N., at 12 o'clock last night after a brief illness.

His demise was caused from convulsions, the result of a stroke of paralysis which he experienced several months ago.

He was as well as usual yesterday, however, being down town in the afternoon, and his death will be a surprise to the community.

Funeral announcement later.

Sheriff L. W. Fennell of this city, John Fennell of Melrose, and a party from Putnam county, have gone on a deer hunt in the wilds of the St. Johns river swamps, and expect to be absent for several days. Lettuce Moving Slowly.

Truckers arriving in this city from along the Gainesville and Gulf Railroad report the movement of lettuce slow at this season. This is due to the fact that a large proportion of the outdoor crop has been shipped, and the remainder has been somewhat damaged by the rain and will not stand shipment. This is being disposed of in the local markets.

The shipment of canvas, or protected lettuce, will begin early in February, and from present indications the crop promises to be very good, with fancy plants.
